

F1/Nursery:

To know that Nursery is a part of a bigger school environment.
To know that recognising different places can help me find my way around i.e. the toilets, the blue door.
To know that a map shows me where something is.

F2/Reception:

To know that information can be drawn from a simple map.
To know that land and sea can be represented on a map.
To know some of the features of our local environment.

Geography Knowledge Path

Geographical skills and fieldwork

Year 1:

To know that the UK and its countries can be identified on a map, atlas, globe, or aerial photographs.
To know that symbols can represent features on a map of my school environment.
To know that positional language can be used to give directions.

Year 2:

To know that a compass can be used for directions.
To know that there are 4 main compass points.
To know that a map can show locations, features and routes.
To know that there are human and physical landmarks.
To know that a map has a key with basic symbols.
To know that locational and directional language can be used to describe the location of features on a map. (i.e. near, far, left, right)

